Reports

Secretary's Report

No corrections were suggested for our June meeting minutes. The minutes will be submitted to SETA.

Treasurer's Report

June's only expense was $37.48 for Grapevine's 80th birthday cake at the Beginner's Group 36th Anniversary. This will be labeled as a presentation expense and gives the committee a balance of $1220.21. Year to date the committee has spent $810.79.

Old Business

- The committee celebrated Grapevine's 80th birthday at the Beginners Group 36th Anniversary on June 15. Pictures are available in the Grapevine Committee Shared Drive under "Grapevine Photos."
- Grapevine's report at June's assembly was virtual, due to the power outages. Our Alt chair was able to give the report.

New Business

- Districts 32, 52, and 82 are proposing an upcoming Grapevine event (format to be determined) for the late Summer or Fall of this year. More will be reported as information becomes available.
- The SETA Grapevine Committee will have an opportunity to have a display at the AA Texas State Convention next year.
- SETA Grapevine is being asked for a workshop and display for the 2025 SETA Convention.
- On Sunday, July 21, Grapevine will do a job description presentation at the District 31 Meeting Hall, 21820 E. Memorial Drive, Porter, Texas 77365. The meeting will be 2-4 PM. The committee has been given a 30 minute time slot. This will be a hybrid meeting and is available at the following Google Meet link:
<http://meet.google.com/svk-rpwk-qjg>

- Grapevine and LaVina now have American sign language videos available on YouTube.
- District 82 / Plantation is campaigning to get Grapevine back issues into the Texas prison system.
- Be mindful that elections are in October and to ensure continuity in the committee, we will have discussions soon.

Adjournment

At 7:36 PM, Melissa R. made the motion to adjourn the meeting. Terry P. seconded the motion and following was the "Responsibility Statement".
