

The January meeting of the Area 67 Literature Committee was called to order at 7:32 p.m. Jan. 16, 2024 by Dan K., chair.

Present were Dan, Alternate Chair Jim; Kevin, District 70 DCM; Secretary Carol F.; Ashley, Lit Rep District 81, Caitlin, GSR SISTX, Shea, Literature Rep. SISTX, and Mary Margaret, AA member.

Minutes were accepted as presented.

Dan reported that a family illness had complicated his schedule, but he was planning to pick up the books from Houston Intergroup for the literature booth at the SETA convention.

Dan and Jim discussed the logistics of running the booth at the convention and said they would be glad for any help available.

Doing a workshop on the questions posed by the literature committee in New York was discussed. Jim said Rick, the delegate, was interested in the literature committee doing a workshop in a roundtable type format to hear input on the questions.

Various venues and their prices were discussed and the group agreed to try the Church of the Holy Apostles in Katy where many meetings are held as well as the annual Traditions Dinner. Rick had availability on March 16. Hybrid logistics were discussed and the group decided that the additional complication and possible expense was possibly too much for this workshop.

Jim said we would summarize the thoughts expressed during the workshop and give them to Rick for his use at the conference in April.

Ashley reported having trouble getting people to attend the monthly district level literature meeting and asked for ideas to stimulate interest among the membership.

Jim predicted that the survey would generate interest.

The next meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. Feb. 20.

The meeting adjourned at 8:33 p.m. with the responsibility statement.

A special meeting of the Area 67 Literature Committee was called to order at 7:01 p.m. Feb. 6, 2024 by Dan K., chair.

Present were Dan, Alt Chair Jim; Secretary Carol; Shea, lit chair, SISTX, Caitlin, SISTX GSR

Dan reported that the great room at the Church of the Holy Apostles had been secured for the March 26 workshop. He presented a flyer developed for the event by a friend of Jim.

The group discussed the timing of the event and how the day would go and made a few changes and suggestions for the flyer.

Dan said he hopes to have a facilitator and a recorder at each table.

A discussion of the timing of the workshop ensued and the group agreed to a 1-4 p.m. timeframe.

The group decided to have another special literature committee meeting at 9 p.m. Feb. 13 in addition to the regular meeting Feb. 20.

The meeting adjourned with the responsibility statement.
