Financial support from groups is vital to ensure the AA service structure functions at full strength, providing essential services to make more and better 12th step work possible. Groups are encouraged to adopt a specific contribution plan, through an informed group conscience, for each of the AA service entities. No contribution toward carrying the message is too small.

We say – and hear "all we have is today" so often that it can lose its power.

It's important to regularly remind ourselves that what we really have is a "daily reprieve contingent on the maintenance of our spiritual condition".

It is today's spiritual effort that helps us stay physically, mentally, emotionally and spiritually sober today.

Yes, the last thirty days of sobriety are indeed very different than the very first thirty days of sobriety. But what we did in those first thirty days really only worked to keep us sober in those first thirty days.

*Today is what we have.
Today is what we must work with.
Today's action is what keeps us sober today.*
