Trusted Servant

On page C5 in The A.A. Service Manual combined with Twelve Concepts for World Service it states,

“Throughout the entire world today we are witnessing the breakdown “group conscience.” It has always been the hope of democratic nations that their citizens would always be enlightened enough, moral enough, and responsible enough to manage their own affairs through chosen representatives. But in many self-governing countries we are now seeing the inroads of ignorance, apathy, and power-seeking upon democratic systems. Their spiritual resources of right purpose and collective intelligence are waning. Consequently, many a land has become so helpless that the only answer is dictatorship.

Happily, for us, there seems little prospect of such a calamity in A.A. The life of each individual and of each group is built around our Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions. We very well know that the penalty for extensive disobedience to these principles is death for the individual and dissolution for the group. An even greater force for A.A.’s unity is the compelling love that we have for our fellow members and for the principles upon which our lives today are founded.

Therefore, we believe that we see in our Fellowship a spiritualized society characterized by enough enlightenment, enough responsibility and enough love of man and of God to insure that our democracy of world service will work under all conditions.”

This idea that our fellowship is expressed through our group conscience is so important. That the ultimate authority rests with its groups and not any one person gaining power over the other. It doesn't matter how much money, how much sobriety, etc. It doesn't matter.

It shows me where ignorance, apathy and power-seeking can lead me. My experience shows ignorance can look like talking as if I know on a subject even if I have never researched it. Apathy can look like I don't want to deal with “all that stuff” someone else will do it. Power-seeking can look like it must be done my way no matter what it does to other.

The amazing thing for me is that if I practice the steps, traditions, and concepts in all my affairs the chance of the above happening is low. Just by practicing these principles in all my affairs it will ensure my service to the fellowship, that saved my life, will work. Suiting up, showing up, taking the action and letting my High-Power take care of the rest seems to be the answer.

In love and service,
Christina S.

Step 3

Made a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God as we understood Him.

Tradition 3

The only requirement for A.A. membership is a desire to stop drinking.

Concept 3

"To insure effective leadership, we should endow each element of A.A.—the Conference, the General Service Board and its service corporations, staffs, committees, and executives—with a traditional "Right of Decision."

THIRD STEP PRAYER

God, I offer myself to Thee- To build with me and to do with me as Thou wilt. Relieve me of the bondage of self, that I may better do Thy will. Take away my difficulties, that victory over them may bear witness to those I would help of Thy Power, Thy Love, and Thy Way of life. May I do Thy will always!

What's the General Service Conference?

A conference linking the A.A. groups to the General Service Office and the General Service Board. It serves as the group conscience for A.A. as a whole. Although the Conference only meets for six days a year, the Conference members are active in Conference affairs throughout the year. Conference members are elected as representatives from each of 93 area assemblies. The assemblies themselves are elected by General Service Representatives (GSRs) from all A.A. groups.

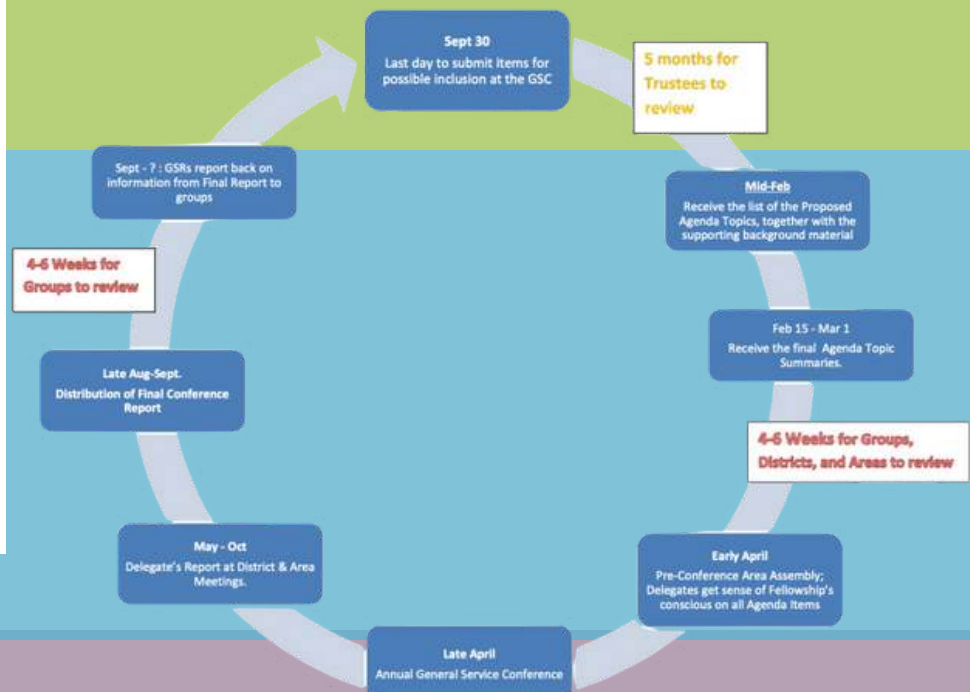

What is a final agenda item?

The final agenda for any Conference consists of items suggested by individual A.A. members, groups, delegates, trustees, area assemblies, area committee members, and directors/staff members of AAWS and the Grapevine. Whatever its origin, any agenda item follows the same path to the Conference agenda: the A.A. staff studies it in the light of previous Conference actions, then passes it on to the trustees' Conference Committee or the appropriate Conference committee to determine when, where and whether it will appear on the Conference agenda.

APPENDIX U: THE PATH FOR AN IDEA TO BECOME AN AGENDA ITEM

- 2 The idea is reviewed by the GSO/GV Staff and forwarded to the... Appropriate Trustees' Committee
